WOMEN'S NEWS

Honor Member Sunday will be on September 24th at coffee hour. All Zion members over 75 are invited to sit with us and be served.

We are sending out letters for the Bakeless Bake Sale in September. Look for them in the mail.

ZION QUILTERS

The quilters got together Thursday, August 3rd and with 3 workers, they made 5 quilts and 4 layettes. Their next time together is September 8th.

TUESDAY COMMUNITY SUPPER ACTIVITIES

The Tuesday Community meal will be served on Tuesday, September 5th by St. Mary's Immaculate Conception Church in Hammond. Menu unavailable at this time.

FROM PASTOR KEITH

A favorite hymn of mine is "Lord, Whose Love in Humble Service." (#712 in our red ELW Hymnal) This hymn speaks of the service Jesus Christ took upon Himself to serve us... most humbly... by giving his life on the cross. The second verse speaks of people in our midst who live in need.

We are looking to address the needs of people around us... our humble gifts can make a great difference in the lives of people who struggle to meet the needs of their own lives.

TWO WAYS TO SERVE:

BACKPACK BLESSING SERVICE – SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 10TH.

This is the first Sunday of Sunday School. During our worship that day we will pray for our children and teachers who come together here at Zion to learn the Good News of the Gospel. We will also uplift all who work with our children to create a better world for each of them.

SUPPLIES FOR SCHOOL

COULD EACH PERSON provide some school supplies that could be shared with local students. Since the vast majority of our children are in the Baldwin-Woodville School District, we will be sharing with them any collected supplies. A list could include:

TISSUES: Kleenex, etc.
CRAYONS – 24 count
ERASERS
PENCILS – writing (Ticonderoga requested) and colored pencils
RED FOLDERS – with pockets inside
HAND SANITIZER
BACKPACK
GLUE STICKS
NOTEBOOKS / LOOSELEAF PAPER
SNACKS – children don't learn well if they are hungry
OTHER supplies will be shared where needed.

ALSO:

GRACE PLACE NEEDS

A list could include:
TOILET PAPER
NEW PILLOW
POST-IT NOTES
OFFICE SUPPLIES
CLOTHING HANGERS
SWEAT PANTS (Adult sizes)
DIAPERS – all sizes, but 4-6 especially needed
DEODERANT
RAZERS
SHAMPOO / CONDITIONER
TOWELS – kitchen and bath
UNDERWEAR – NEW ONLY any size

If you go shopping these next few weeks, please put someone you do not know into your heart and supply a need if you are able.

YOU MAY BRING ANYTHING AT ANY TIME. WE WILL MAKE A CONCERTED EFFORT ON SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 10TH TO GATHER AND SHARE.

Thank you for your kindness and thoughtful service.

In Christ's love,
Pastor Keith

FROM PASTOR ANDY BOE

When Jesus began his ministry at about the age of 30 the gospels record that he came preaching the "good news" of the kingdom. That good news we call the Gospel today! That message of God's love and concern touched the lives of many people and their needs in that time. That gospel message changed the course of human history. We continue today to be touched by the good news/gospel!

The second reading for the last Sunday in August was from Paul's letter to the Romans chapter 12. Here Paul offers hope and a vision for God's people. Paul says, "... do not be conformed to this world ... but be transformed by the renewing of your mind..."

Thank you for being a part of ministry and mission through worship and service at Zion. We continue to share the good news of God's love and hope to all people! This is a positive gift that we share with our needs and the needs of all people in the troubling times we face. We are transformed and transforming in the midst of our daily lives! Thanks for your participation as we begin our fall schedule here at Zion. Please gather together for worship, education, service, and stewardship! We need one another as we transform ourselves and the world around us. We bring God's love and hope to each other! Have a beautiful Fall in Wisconsin and around the world!
